

Would you please look in the Edmonton phone book and city directory and let me know if there is a John 466-0109 Duncan Campbell living at 10908-65A Street. I would like to know his occupation. He met Dr. John William Dale Griffith, borrowed the Campbells of Auchindrain from him, xeroxed it and in March, 1974, wrote me a most enthusiastic letter about it, although he himself is not a Campbell from Auchindrain. I answered his letter right away but received no reply. I know quite a bit about his ancestry & would like to pass the information on to him.

Dr. Griffith's mother was a ~~mother~~^{sister} of the late Florence Campbell.

I am recovering from 22 months of almost continual illness, just one darned disease after another, right up until September of this year. During that long time in bed I tried to keep my mind off my troubles by making a very close study of all the Scottish records sent to me by Mrs. Fleming. As a result I have found the birth of an Isabel Ferguson whose parents seem to fit better, genealogically speaking.

than do the ones found by Mrs. Fleming which I put in the Campbells from Auchindrain. There, the parents were John ~~the~~ Ferguson & Isabel Mc Nair. Since the 2nd son seems to have been John that seemed to fit but it did not account for the 1st dau. being Mary. Now we have this birth -

* Isabel, dau. to Duncan Ferguson in Oaelectan and Mary Campbell - Sept. 14, 1740.

The marriage of Duncan Ferguson & Mary Campbell, who came from the Parish of Glassary, took place on Feb. 2, 1738.

At the time I wrote The Campbells from Auchindrain I had had experience only with records of Inveraray Parish and did not believe that there could be duplicate records. Now I know that records were sometimes duplicated, when people moved & attended a different church or a new minister came along, I am now inclined therefore to accept Duncan Campbell and Mary Mc Intyre as the parents of Peter Campbell

Sept. 25, 1737 - Patrick son to Duncan Campbell in Inveraray & Mary Mc Intyre

1744, no month. Archibald son to Duncan Campbell & Mary Mc Intyre was baptised

Peter Campbell, son to the said Duncan Campbell & Mary Mc Intyre was baptised.

I now think Patrick & Peter were the same person & your ancestor. The father was a tailor. With both fathers named Duncan & both mothers named Mary, you can be darned sure the 1st son was named Duncan & the 1st daughter Mary.

Mrs. Fleming & her husband flew to B.C. to visit relatives this fall. They came to see us and we liked them both very much.
