

Mrs. Betty Traver
102 S West St.
Greensboro, GA 30642-1136

P1 beginning

Andersonville Ga.
Aug. 29, 1864

Andersonville, Ga. Aug 29, 1864
 Dear Mother,
 I received your kind letter of the 24th and was very glad to hear from you. I am well at present and hope these few lines will find you the same. I have not much news to write at present. The weather here is very warm and the mosquitoes are very troublesome. I have not much news to write at present. The weather here is very warm and the mosquitoes are very troublesome. I have not much news to write at present. The weather here is very warm and the mosquitoes are very troublesome.

P5

She is now at a private house and her husband who is paroled, both on long nights.

Other Ohio slaves at the best large - prisoners and worth to make on an exchange? Twenty or more prisoners not less than but paroled Yankers or of our worth to make on exchange. They were such men as the Southern's trusted, considered them intelligent and brave men. As they failed in their undertakings they obligated themselves to return and become prisoners of war again.

Labels. Have any of the prisoners been hung and do they fight back. Yes, both six of the prisoners were, by a vote of their own army, executed and hung somewhere about the 15th July I ask that were hung for robbing and murder, at the same time and to the same place. I have again for most respectable conduct on hand of several dead men were and under hundreds.

They also had some number of medals. I might continue about the prisoners. I might tell you of their services in bringing in the rebels and so much about them. I must believe, answer in writing to some queries I found yesterday but I will tell you the few things I when I write Perry's case of 1862 and so on. The last of the day, I am sure, I will tell you that I find some things I have at hand that I can show the evidence before I can show them.

P. 8